Under the traditional accounting model, the mindset is not even considered, let alone recognised, and Martienne and Barb realised a system was required to encompass these parameters.

Martienne and Barbara's personal journeys highlighted the importance of their mindsets and limiting beliefs about money, beliefs that needed to be changed. They looked for tools that would assist them in changing these limiting beliefs and revising their abundance blueprints.

Based on their own holistic journeys, they discovered, through the process of consulting and mentoring clients, that many of their clients were experiencing the same issues.

Clients' successes were being hindered by their limiting beliefs. Being familiar with those beliefs, Martienne and Barb were able to clearly identify them.

The result was the birth of the first holistic consulting practice! As personal consultants, Martienne and Barb found they could not service the volume of clients who wished to see them, and this got them thinking about how to share their knowledge. This led to the creation of their first book, Empowered Wealth Strategies.

In Empowered Wealth Strategies, accountants and business partners, Martienne Freeth and Barbara Page, share with you the keys and secrets to achieving financial freedom, helping you identify the NOW, the WHERE, the WHEN and the HOW.

Martienne and Barbara will help readers to discover their hidden dreams and desires. They will also help them recognise what limiting beliefs they may have that are preventing them from achieving all of those desires.
